Dated the 12th April, 2017

To

Sub: Complain against an Officer of Sarsuna Police Station

Sir,

This is to draw your kind attention to an unprecedented incident that took place at Sarsuna College, Kolkata today the 12th April, 2017. The President of the Governing Body Mr. Sajal Biswas along with some representatives of a College and University teachers' organisation WBCUPA, owing allegiance to the ruling party of the State, compelled eight newly appointed Assistant Professors of the college to join their organisation by way of filling up forms in front of them and issued veiled threats to their security if they refused to do so. All this took place in the presence of a senior Police Officer of the local Police station, whose presence obviously added an extra dimension to the threats, as a result of which the lady teachers concerned felt helpless and further threatened.

There is no doubt that such an incident is not only unfortunate and alarming for Campuses, but it also reveals how some of the irresponsible and morally degraded police forces have been acting for the benefit of the ruling party in a grossly unfair manner. We strongly condemn the presence of your Officer at the time of such incidence.

We demand an immediate action against that police official who was present at that college premises today when threats were issued to the helpless lady teachers also. It may kindly be noted that we will be compelled to launch a greater movement if proper action is not taken against the Officer of the local police station.

Thank You

With regards,

(Srutinath Praharaj)
